DETAILED ACTION

Election/ Restriction

Claims 1-34 are pending in this application.

- 1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
  - I. Claims 1-10,21-26, drawn to a circuitized substrate and a method for making it classified in class 257, subclass 762 and class 438, subclass 687.
  - II. Claims 11-20,27-30, drawn to an electrical assembly, classified in class 257, subclass 724.
  - III. claims 31-34 drawn to a computer system classified in class 700 subclass 90.
- 2. in the case applicant elected group I, these inventions are required to be further restricted under 35 U.S.C. 121:as the following:
  - Group A. Claims 1-10, drawn to a circuitized substrate classified in class 257, subclass 762
  - Group B. Claims 21-26, drawn to a method for making circuitized substrate classified in class 438, subclass 687.
- 3. The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

  Inventions II and I are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because the electrical assembly can be patentable with a novel electrical component. The subcombination has separate utility such as: the claimed circuitized substrate can be used in other applications such as dummy board with no electrical component.

- 4. The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons: Inventions III and II are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because the computer system can be patentable with a novel CPU. The subcombination has separate utility such as: the claimed electrical assembly can be used in other application such as an analog circuit board.
- 5. for the method and device restriction, the inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons: Inventions group B and group A are related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make other and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case unpatentability of the Group A invention would not necessarily imply unpatentability of the Group B invention, since the device of the group A invention could be made by processes materially different from those of the Group B invention. For example, in claim 23, the process for making a circuitized substrate wherein the though hole can be provide with a mechanical drill which is a materially different process from claim 23 using laser.

Application/Control Number: 10/812,890 Page 4

Art Unit: 2818

- 6. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, the fields of search are not coexistent. Therefore, separate examinations would be required and restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.
- 7. Applicant is advised that the response to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).
- 8. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a diligently filed petition under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(h).
